THE South-
Carolina GAZETTE.
April 27, 1752. [NUMB. 935.]

LONDON, January 14.

AMONGST the many Points of Reformation, that are become glaringly neceſſary, that of ſuppreſſing GAMING is apparently one: And we are told, that a Scheme is under the conſideration of ſome Perſons of Diſtinction, for this Purpoſe; who look upon it as ſcandalous, to make Laws, almoſt annually, againſt this deſtructive Vice, and ſuffer it to remain, notwithſtanding a faſhionable Diverſion.

His royal highneſs the duke of Cumberland has given orders for ſome alterations and additions to be made in the cloathing of the army.

By the great number of petitions preſented to the houſe of commons for bills to be brought into parliament, it is thought they will not riſe ſo ſoon as has been expected.

London, Jan. 16. We hear that a Treatiſe is in the Preſs, ſaid to be written by a diſtinguiſh'd Politician; in which it will be ſhewn, that the governing States, by their Vices, muſt bring them to Ruin; and that fair promiſing Empyricks in government, are as fatal as Paraſites in private Families; demonſtrated from antient hiſtory.

The eyes of the nation are more ſtrongly turned, at preſent, than ever they were, towards the Britiſh herring fiſhery; as being conducive to all the great objects, that ought to command our thoughts as a trading people and a maritime power, viz. the rendering our coaſt towns populous; employing the induſtrious poor of both ſexes, and of all ages; and laſtly, raiſing a conſtant ſupply of hardy ſeamen.

We hear that there will be an augmentation of twenty men to each company, of the three regiments of foot guards.

London, Jan. 18. Some, who have turned their thoughts to find a probable means for ſuppreſſing Robberies on the Highway, have ſuggeſted, that it might be a ſalutary Precaution to oblige ſuch as keep inns and livery ſtables, to regiſter the horſes in their care, and to whom they belong; and not let any out but to Perſons whoſe Names and Places of Abode they know, or who are known to ſome reſponſible Perſon in the neighbourhood.

There has been privately printed, in a neighbouring country, A tradeſman's Remarks on the late prince of Orange's ſcheme for eſtabliſhing of free ports; which he thinks might be improved by taking away Exciſes, as well as Cuſtoms; the people making good their neat produce to the State. For this would eaſe Trade of a vaſt Burden, ſave thoſe concern'd therein a great deal of Trouble, and enable them to carry it on with fewer ſervants. It would oblige a great Herd of uſeleſs people; ſuch as receivers, comptrollers, itinerant officers, informers, and clerks, to betake themſelves to ſome employment uſeful to the community. By thus favouring the Bees, ſays he, and making Bees of Drones, the Hive will become crowded, and full of Honey.

His majeſtey's ſhip the Severn, lately put into commiſſion, is order'd to be mann'd and victuall'd at Chatham, in order for ſea ſervice.

London, Jan. 21. Orders are given for the hon. Colonel Herbert's regiment of foot to embark for Gibraltar, and lord Ancram's for Minorca, to relieve lord George Beauclerk's, and Colonel Holmes's regiment.

We hear that a bill is ordered into parliament, to regulate the price of grain in general.

Jan. 23. Among other good reaſons aſſigned for Mr. Keene's not having yet been able to bring the Spaniſh court to a definitive treaty; this is ſaid to be a principal one, viz. That the affair of the reſtitution of captures made on both ſides ſince the war, muſt be previouſly determined.

We hear that the uſe of the cat of nine-tails in the army is likely to be ſuppreſſed, and the former method of puniſhment revived.

We are informed by a correſpondent in France, that murderers in that country for the future, are to be hang'd up in chains bare headed for two days, and allowed only bread and water; on the third day, after the executioner has chopped off the hand, with which the murder was committed, they are to receive the Coup de Grace, to be hanged by the neck 'till dead, and their bodies to remain in chains; and whoever even attempts to cut them down, are to be confined to the gallies for life.

We are informed, there will be no ſtate lottery this year, but that there is a lottrey talk'd of for raiſing a conſiderable ſum of money, to be applied towards diſcharging the ſeveral miſerable creatures, who now lie confined in goal for ſmall debts, fees, &c. and paying half the reſpective debts, on their diſcharge, to their creditors. Which, 'tis reckon'd, will be a more national concern, than the charitable corporation, or even the Weſtminſter bridge lotteries; as ſo many objects, now idle and burthenſome to themſelves and the public, may by this means become uſeful members to the ſociety, and their creditors be better ſatisfied, than they ever expected.

Jan. 25. Some private letters from Berlin mention the ſeizing an Officer in the ſervice of that court at Dreſden, and his making his Eſcape with thoſe who were ſent to convey him back. They do not ſo much as hint at his Crime, and yet ſeem to apprehend it as an Affair that will immediately make a great Noiſe, as the court were very deſirous of having him in their Hands.

We hear that a bill will be brought in this ſeſſions to alter the puniſhment of ſome capital crimes from death to hard labour for life.

Jan. 28. At length it appears to be no ſecret, that the ports of Oſtend and Newport in the Auſtrian Low Countries, are to be declared free, as alſo the Tranſit to Bruges. It is whiſpered, that this may prove but the firſt ſtep to a more extenſive plan, and that a very famous projector, who has been in the Eaſt Indies, as well as in moſt countries in Europe, is come thither, as it is thought, to execute ſome deſign of importance.

Jan. 30. We hear that two regiments of foot will embark early in the Spring, for the important fortreſs of Gibraltar; and that it is believed a detachment will be ſent from thence to take poſſeſſion of the Iſland of Tabarca, upon the coaſt of Barbary; which is ſaid to have been lately purchaſed from the Moors, and which was formerly in the hands of the Genoeſe.

Yeſterday came an account, that in the late hard gale of wind, which happened at Cadiz, the following ſhips were drove on ſhore, and ſeveral people drowned, viz the Manchester, Trittie; Iſabel, Gribble; Diamond, Nicholls; Nancy, French; Mary and Joſeph, Taylor; John and William, Murrough, Mary, Dillon; Race-horſe, Brown; Two Marys, Kilpatrick; St. John, Whiting; and Kitty, Moore. Alſo, ſix French ſhips, and one Swede.

Yeſterday the lords of the admiralty put the Wager man of war into commiſſion, and gave the command to Captain Saumarez.

The ſeveral men of war lately put into commiſſion are ordered to be mann'd and victuall'd, in order to put to ſea on the leaſt notice.

We hear the king of Spain has leſſen'd the duties on all Engliſh commodities imported into his kingdom.

Two large French ſhips were loſt in the late hurricane at Cadiz: They were bound to Marſeilles and had on board upwards of 500,000 dollars, beſides a large cargo of valuable effects.

Two Spaniſh Barco-longoes were likewiſe loſt, having on board a large quantity of Engliſh bale goods.

Above a hundred ſhips of different nations were loſt in this hurricane.

A Perſon ſkilled in chemiſtry having lately made ſome propoſals to the lords of the admiralty for making ſea water freſh and good, at a ſmall expence, ſo as to be uſeful on board of ſhips; a quantity of the ſaid water, was on Monday laſt, by their lordſhips order, ſent to the college of phyſicians, who tried the experiment, and were of opinion, that the ſaid water was good and wholeſome, and might be of great uſe to the public. Sixteen gallons of ſea water will by this means, with with about half a bushel of coals, produce thirteen gallons of fresh water.
